

Tribune photo by Michael Tercha

Beacon beckons old friends

A beacon atop the Palmolive Building shines on the 4th of July. The beacon, once a fixture in the city's night sky, was shut in the '80s and was only reactivated for the 4th.